- Create and sustain relations with new customers.
- Propose and implement a sales plan and a product development strategy to gain market share and increase profitability of the company.
- Analyse the feed market, recognize trends and respond on opportunities.
- Create and maintain constructive relations with the organisations, associations and ministries of the respective field.
- Stay up to date with the quality and sale regulations of the feed sector.
- The Area Sales Manager closely cooperates with, and reports to the Area Sales Director (EMEA).

Profile

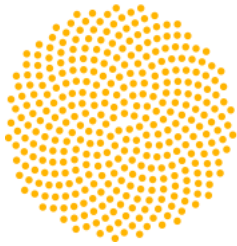

An enthusiast poultry or swine specialist with broad knowledge of feed additives.

Job requirements

- University degree in Zootechnics or Feed Technology.
- Minimum 3 years of experience on a sales position in the feed sector (poultry or swine).
- Good English knowledge.
- Prepared to frequent travel, both domestically and internationally.

Competences

- Ability to work proactive and in a self-directed manner.
- Team player, shares knowledge, capability to implement changes.
- Good problem solving skills.
- Flexible and service minded.
